

Anthem of the International Union of Arab Master Chefs “United by the Spirit of Love”

When Culinary Art Becomes a Language of Unity, Identity, and Civilization

Official article information

Article author —	Article number 256	 Scan to verify the article
Article code —	Protection number —
Reference —

Anthem Introduction

The anthem “United by the Spirit of Love” reflects the core values and vision of the International Union of Arab Master Chefs, carrying a strong message of unity, dedication, and professional commitment to the culinary arts and Arab gastronomic heritage.

Through its poetic verses, the anthem highlights the concept of “a land whose goodness is endless” as a symbol of generosity, cultural depth, and the rich culinary legacy that inspires Arab chefs in their creative journey. It presents a positive and forward-looking vision rooted in hope and purpose, aiming to elevate culinary arts in the modern world while preserving authenticity and identity.

The opening lines affirm the unity of Arab chefs, bound together by passion, perseverance, and a shared mission to serve people through honest work and refined taste. The anthem celebrates the land as a source of inspiration and reference, transforming its bounty into creativity, innovation, and cultural expression.

Within its verses, the anthem delivers a motivational message encouraging chefs to pursue excellence, uphold determination and passion, and recognize culinary practice as both a professional craft and a humanitarian responsibility. It emphasizes that cooking is not merely a skill, but a form of art that satisfies high taste and reflects cultural awareness.

The repeated refrain “United by the Spirit of Love” stands as a powerful symbol of solidarity and mutual understanding among members of the Union, reinforcing the belief that cooperation and collective effort are the foundation of sustainable success and global professional presence.

Anthem Lyrics

United by the spirit of love
On a land whose goodness flows
We hold hope, we hold a goal
For people’s needs, we strive and grow

Arab chefs are one in soul
Earth’s generosity our guide
We have passion, we have will Truth in action lifts our pride

Arts of the world take many forms
Culinary art is pure creation
This is what we truly master
To fulfill refined taste and inspiration

United by the spirit of love
On a land whose goodness flows
We hold hope, we hold a goal
For people’s needs, we strive and grow

God has granted you His grace
By the light of thought, He raised you high
And His word is always true:
“Eat from what We have provided.”

United by the spirit of love
On a land whose goodness flows
We hold hope, we hold a goal
For people’s needs, we strive and grow

IUOAMC
International Union Of Arab Master Chefs